

Character Connections: 3 Rounds

Story Introduction

Days ago, you joined a desert caravan. You, and the rest of those in the caravan, are currently in the middle of the desert.

Round 1

Introduce your character, and briefly why they joined the caravan. 1-2 sentences.

Round 2 and 3

Then, either roll or choose on one of the two lists below to create a connection to another character in the caravan. Alternatively, if you have a good idea, feel free to use that as a connection instead!

d12	Family and Growing Up Connections
1	We grew up in the same area/town/city, but otherwise don't really know each other.
2	Our families know each other, and we had met at community events.
3	Our families know each other, and are in a sworn alliance together.
4	Our families are in a multi-generational feud, and we've both done things to further it.
5	We're related, but not too closely.
6	We were childhood friends who grew apart, and haven't seen each other in ages – before randomly reuniting on the caravan.
7	We grew up together, and you bullied me. You barely remember, but I can never forget.
8	You promised my caretaker that, after they died, you'd protect me. My caretaker died a few months ago.
9	My family forbade me from hanging out with you...which of course made me do it more.
10	Your best friend was a close relative of mine, and I loved hearing stories about you.
11	Our siblings were best friends, so we saw each other around a lot.
12	You were the family member of someone I dated, and I broke their heart (or they broke mine).

d12	Adventure Connections
1	You saved my life once from a potentially fatal accident.
2	You and I happened to end up on the same side during a bar fight.
3	We recently attended a class or training academy together.
4	We recently were hired together for an adventure/mission/task.
5	You and I both recently help put a fire out together.
6	We both train at the same location.
7	We both frequent the same tavern/bar.
8	We use the same blacksmith for equipment repairs.
9	We are a part of the same guild/group.
10	We recently fought together in the same war, on the same/different side.
11	I told a joke at a recent party once – you were the only one who laughed at it.
12	We both worked on a shady job or two together.
